

LAUNCH EDITION

Effervescence

Celebrating Champagne & Sparkling Wine

Finest Fizz

A look into the world's best sparkling wine

Champagne Guide

Know your styles, when to drink and what to eat alongside them

HOUSE OF TAITTINGER ✦ 500 YEARS OF BUBBLES ✦ WHAT ARE WE DRINKING NOW?

La Scolca

Strada per Rovereto 170/r, Gavi, 15066 Italy
www.lascolca.net

What strikes one coming to La Scolca is the ancient tower that dominates the house. There is a pleasure in the atmosphere which is perceived: everything takes place with harmony and with punctuality that only well-tested mechanisms may show. The estate La Scolca was taken over between 1917 and 1919 by the great-grandfather of Giorgio Soldati who today leads the company together with his daughter Chiara. La Scolca stemmed from the name "Sfurca" or "Watch out" and the farmhouse that stood there in the past was just a lookout post. These names reflect the full proud and tenacious character of the owners and their wines.